Chapter 1 Introduction

Summary of Chapter 1

Chapter 1 sets out the rules relating to:

- the main purpose of these Rules, and the obligations of parties, lawyers and the court;
- the court's general powers that are to apply in all cases; and
- other preliminary matters, including sittings, definitions, calculation of time and publication.

These Rules are not, and should not be read as if they were, a complete code of the court's powers. Other powers are found in the provisions of various Acts, the court's inherent jurisdiction and the common law.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 1.1 Preliminary

1.01 Name of Rules [see Note 1]

These Rules are the Family Law Rules 2004.

1.02 Commencement

These Rules commence on 29 March 2004.

Note The Family Law Rules 1984 (the old Rules), as in force under the Family Law Act 1975 immediately before the commencement of these Rules (the new Rules), are repealed — see the Family Law Repeal Rules 2004. The new Rules apply to a case that was commenced in accordance with the old Rules and not determined before the repeal of those Rules — see rule 4 of the Family Law Repeal Rules 2004.

---

Rule 1.03

1.03 Rules in Chapter 1 prevail

- (1) Chapter 1 sets out the general rules that the court may apply in all cases.
- (2) If a rule in another Chapter conflicts with a rule in Chapter 1 of these Rules, the rule in Chapter 1 applies.

Rule 1.04

Part 1.2 Main purpose of Rules

1.04 Main purpose of Rules

The main purpose of these Rules is to ensure that each case is resolved in a just and timely manner at a cost to the parties and the court that is reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

Note Section 43 of the Act sets out the principles that the court must apply when exercising its jurisdiction under the Act.

1.05 Pre-action procedure

- (1) Before starting a case, each prospective party to the case must comply with the pre-action procedures, the text of which is set out in Schedule 1.
- (2) Compliance with subrule (1) is not necessary if:
  - (a) for a parenting case — the case involves allegations of child abuse or family violence, or the risk of child abuse or family violence;
  - (b) for a property case — the case involves allegations of family violence, or the risk of family violence, or fraud;
  - (c) the application is urgent;
  - (d) the applicant would be unduly prejudiced;
  - (e) there has been a previous application in the same cause of action in the 12 months immediately before the start of the case;
  - (f) the case is an application for divorce;
  - (g) the case is a child support application or appeal; or
  - (h) the case involves a court's jurisdiction in bankruptcy under section 35 or 35B of the Bankruptcy Act.

Note 1 The court publishes a brochure setting out the pre-action procedures for financial cases and parenting cases.

Note 2 The court may take into account a party's failure to comply with a pre-action procedure when considering whether to order costs (see paragraph 1.10 (2) (d)).

Rule 1.07

Note 3 Subsections 60I (7) to (12) provide for attendance at family dispute resolution before applying for an order under Part VII of the Act in relation to a child.

1.06 Promoting the main purpose

The court must apply these Rules to promote the main purpose, and actively manage each case by:

- (a) encouraging and helping parties to consider and use a dispute resolution method rather than having the case resolved by trial;
- (b) having regard to unresolved risks or other concerns about the welfare of a child involved;
- (c) identifying the issues in dispute early in the case and separating and disposing of any issues that do not need full investigation and trial;
- (d) at an early stage, identifying and matching types of cases to the most appropriate case management procedure;
- (e) setting realistic timetables, and monitoring and controlling the progress of each case;
- (f) ensuring that parties and their lawyers comply with these Rules, any practice directions and procedural orders;
- (g) considering whether the likely benefits of taking a step justify the cost of that step;
- (h) dealing with as many aspects of the case as possible on the same occasion;
- (i) minimising the need for parties and their lawyers to attend court by, if appropriate, relying on documents; and
- (j) having regard to any barriers to a party's understanding of anything relevant to the case.

1.07 Achieving the main purpose

To achieve the main purpose, the court applies these Rules in a way that:

- (a) deals with each case fairly, justly and in a timely manner;
- (b) encourages parties to negotiate a settlement, if appropriate;
- (c) is proportionate to the issues in a case and their complexity, and the likely costs of the case;

Rule 1.08

---

- (d) promotes the saving of costs;
- (e) gives an appropriate share of the court's resources to a case, taking into account the needs of other cases; and
- (f) promotes family relationships after resolution of the dispute, where possible.

1.08 Responsibility of parties and lawyers in achieving the main purpose

- (1) Each party has a responsibility to promote and achieve the main purpose, including:
  - (a) ensuring that any orders sought are reasonable in the circumstances of the case and that the court has the power to make those orders;
  - (b) complying with the duty of disclosure (see rule 13.01);
  - (c) ensuring readiness for court events;
  - (d) providing realistic estimates of the length of hearings or trials;
  - (e) complying with time limits;

the court may determine the case in the absence of the parties.

3.10 Hearing in absence of parties — joint application

If, in a joint Application for Divorce, the applicants request that the case be heard in their absence, the court may so determine the case.

Note The court must not determine the Application in the absence of the parties if there are any children of the marriage who are under 18 and the court is not satisfied that proper arrangements have been made for their care, welfare and development (see subsection 98A (2A) of the Act).

3.11 Request not to hear case in parties' absence

A respondent to an Application for Divorce who objects to the case being heard in the absence of the parties must, at least 7 days before the date fixed for the hearing, file and serve a written notice to that effect.

Note 1 If a respondent seeks that a case not be heard in the absence of the parties, the court must not determine the case in the absence of the parties (see subsection 98A (1) of the Act).

Note 2 A notice under this rule must comply with subrule 24.01 (1).

Part 3.5                      Events affecting divorce order

3.12                      Application for rescission of divorce order

A party may, before a divorce order nisi becomes absolute, apply for the order to be rescinded by filing an Application in a Case.

Note 1 Sections 57 and 58 of the Act set out the circumstances in which the court may rescind a divorce order nisi.

Note 2 A party filing an Application in a Case must file an affidavit (see rule 5.02).

3.13                      Death of party

If a party to an Application for Divorce dies after the divorce order nisi is made but before the order becomes absolute, the surviving party must inform the Registry Manager of the death of the other party by filing:

Chapter 4 Application for Final Orders

Summary of Chapter 4

Chapter 4 sets out rules about:

- the general procedure for starting a case by an Initiating Application (Family Law) seeking final orders, for example, an Application for Property Settlement or Parenting Orders; and
- the procedure for starting specific applications such as an Application relying on cross-vesting laws, for a medical procedure, maintenance, child support or a declaration as to validity of a marriage.

Before starting a case, you must comply with the court's pre-action procedures (see subrule 1.05 (1) and Schedule 1).

You may also need to refer to other Chapters in these Rules when making an application, in particular, Chapters 6, 7 and 24.

Note This Chapter does not apply to:

- (a) an Application for Divorce (see Chapter 3);
- (b) an application for an interim, procedural or other incidental order about an application seeking final orders whether made in an Initiating Application (Family Law) or an Application in a Case (see Chapter 5);
- (c) an Application for Review of a Judicial Registrar's or a Registrar's Order (see Chapter 18);
- (d) an Application to enforce an obligation to pay money (see Chapter 20);
- (e) an Application resulting from a contravention of an order or in relation to contempt (see Chapter 21);
- (f) an Application relating to an appeal (see Chapter 22); or
- (g) an appeal (see Chapter 22).

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 4.1 Introduction

4.01 Contents of Application for Final Orders

- (1) In an Initiating Application (Family Law), the applicant must:
  - (a) give full particulars of the orders sought; and
  - (b) include all causes of action that can be disposed of conveniently in the same case.

Note Under paragraph 1.08 (1) (a), any orders sought must be reasonable in the circumstances of the case and within the power of the court.

- (2) A party seeking any of the following must not include any other cause of action in the Application:
  - (a) an order that a marriage be annulled;
  - (b) a declaration as to the validity of a marriage, divorce or annulment;
  - (c) an order authorising a medical procedure under Division 4.2.3.

Note An application for an order mentioned in subrule (2) may only be made in an Initiating Application (Family Law) and must not be made in a Response to an Initiating Application (Family Law) (see subrule 9.01 (4)).

- (3) Despite subrule (2), a party may seek the following orders in the same Application:
  - (a) an order that a marriage be annulled;
  - (b) a declaration as to the validity of a marriage, divorce or annulment.

Note For amendment of an application, see Division 11.2.2.

4.02 Filing affidavits

A party must not file an affidavit with an Initiating Application (Family Law) unless permitted or required to do so by these Rules.

Example

A party only seeking final orders for property settlement or parenting orders must not file an affidavit with an Initiating Application (Family Law).

Rule 4.03

4.03 First court date

On the filing of an Initiating Application (Family Law), the Registry Manager must fix a date:

- (a) in a parenting case — for a procedural hearing that is as near as practicable to 28 days after the application was filed;
- (b) in a financial case — for a case assessment conference that is as near as practicable to 28 days after the application was filed;
- (c) if the application includes both a financial case and a parenting case — for a case assessment conference that is as near as practicable to 28 days after the application was filed; or
- (d) if an earlier date is fixed for the hearing of that or another application so far as it concerns an interim, procedural or other ancillary order in the case — for a procedural hearing on the same day.

Note Under subrule 5.05 (4), a Registrar may, in exceptional circumstances, allow an application for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental order to be listed for urgent hearing. Chapter 12 sets out the requirements for case assessment conferences and procedural hearings.

Part 4.2            Specific applications

Division 4.2.1      General

4.04      General provisions still apply

If a rule in this Part specifies particular requirements for an application, those requirements are in addition to the general requirements for an Initiating Application (Family Law).

4.05      Application by Attorney-General for transfer of case

If the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, or of a State or Territory, applies for the transfer of a case under Division 4.2.2 (Cross-vesting) or Chapter 25 (Corporations Act 2001), the Attorney-General does not, by that application, automatically become a party to the case.

Division 4.2.2      Cross-vesting

4.06      Cross-vesting matters

- (1) If a party filing an Initiating Application (Family Law) or a Response to Initiating Application (Family Law) relies on a cross-vesting law, the party must specify, in the application or response, the particular State or Territory law on which the party relies.
- (2) A party relying on a cross-vesting law after a case has started must file an Application in a Case seeking procedural orders in relation to the matter.
- (3) A party to whom subrule (1) or (2) applies must also file an affidavit stating:
  - (a) that the claim is based on the State or Territory law and the reasons why the Family Court should deal with the claim;
  - (b) the rules of evidence and procedure (other than those of the relevant Family Court) on which the party relies; and

Rule 4.07

---

- (c) if the case involves a special federal matter — the grounds for claiming the matter involves a special federal matter.

4.07 Transfer of case

A party to a case to which rule 4.06 applies may apply to have the case transferred to another court by filing an Application in a Case.

Note An application under this rule must be listed for hearing by a Judge.

4.09 Evidence supporting application

- (1) If a Medical Procedure Application is filed, evidence must be given to satisfy the court that the proposed medical procedure is in the best interests of the child.

Rule 4.09

---

- (a) the exact nature and purpose of the proposed medical procedure;
  - (b) the particular condition of the child for which the procedure is required;
  - (c) the likely long-term physical, social and psychological effects on the child:
    - (i) if the procedure is carried out; and
    - (ii) if the procedure is not carried out;
  - (d) the nature and degree of any risk to the child from the procedure;
  - (e) if alternative and less invasive treatment is available — the reason the procedure is recommended instead of the alternative treatments;
  - (f) that the procedure is necessary for the welfare of the child;
  - (g) if the child is capable of making an informed decision about the procedure — whether the child agrees to the procedure;
  - (h) if the child is incapable of making an informed decision about the procedure — that the child:
    - (i) is currently incapable of making an informed decision; and
    - (ii) is unlikely to develop sufficiently to be able to make an informed decision within the time in which the procedure should be carried out, or within the foreseeable future;
  - (i) whether the child's parents or carer agree to the procedure.
- (3) The evidence may be given:

Note 1 Documents that may need to be produced under paragraph (f) include documents setting out the details mentioned in rule 13.04.

Chapter 5 Applications for interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental orders

Summary of Chapter 5

Chapter 5 sets out the procedure for making an application for interim, procedural, ancillary, or other incidental orders. You may also need to refer to other Chapters in these Rules when making an Application, in particular, Chapters 2, 4, 7 and 24.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 5.1 General

5.01 Restrictions in relation to applications

- (1) A party may apply for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental order in relation to a cause of action only if:
  - (a) the party has made an application for final orders in that cause of action; and
  - (b) final orders have not been made on that application.

Note A reference to application includes a reference to cross-application (see the dictionary).
- (2) A party may apply for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental order only if the order sought relates to a current case.
- (3) Subrule (2) does not apply if the party is seeking:
  - (a) permission to start a case or extend a time limit to start a case;

Rule 5.01A

- (b) to start a case for a child or a person with a disability under rule 6.10; or
  - (c) an order for costs.
- (4) This rule does not apply to restrict the filing of an Application in a Case by:
- (a) an independent children's lawyer;
  - (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions, when making an application under section 79C, 79D, 90N, 90P, 90VB or 90VC of the Act, to stay or lift a stay of a property settlement or spousal or de facto maintenance case;
  - (c) a bankruptcy trustee; or
  - (d) a trustee of a personal insolvency agreement.
- (5) If a party applies for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other order at the start of a case, the application must be in an Initiating Application (Family Law).
- (6) If a party applies for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other order after a case has commenced, the application must be in an Application in a Case.

Note 1 An Application in a Case is used to make:

- (a) an Application for review of a Judicial Registrar's or Registrar's order (see Chapter 18); and
- (b) an Application to enforce an obligation to pay money or to enforce a parenting order (see Chapter 20 and rule 21.01).

Note 2 A party may ask for a procedural order orally (see paragraph (h) of item 3 of Table 11.1).

5.01A Filing of applications seeking parenting orders during the Christmas school holiday period

- (1) This rule applies to an application for a parenting order relating in whole or part to the school holiday period beginning in December in a year (the application year) and extending to January in the following year.

Rule 5.02

- (2) The application must be filed before 4.00 pm on the second Friday in November of the application year.

Note Except in cases of urgency (where the usual criteria for an urgent hearing will apply), an application filed after the deadline under subrule (2) will be allocated the next available date in the usual way. That date may be after Christmas. In other words, if the deadline has passed, the fact that an application relates to the school holiday period will not of itself justify a listing before Christmas. In urgent cases, applications to abridge times and to list a matter on short notice can be made to the Registry.

5.02 Evidence in applications to which Chapter 5 applies

- (1) A party who applies for an interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental order in an Initiating Application (Family Law), or who files an Application in a Case, must at the same time file an affidavit stating the facts relied on in support of the orders sought.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply to an Application in a Case in which a review of the order of a Judicial Registrar or Registrar is sought.

Note Some rules require that the affidavit filed with the Application address specific factors (see, for example, rule 5.12).

5.03 Procedure before filing

- (1) Before filing an application seeking interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental orders, a party must make a reasonable and genuine attempt to settle the issue to which the application relates.
- (2) An applicant does not have to comply with subrule (1) if:
- (a) compliance will cause undue delay or expense;
  - (b) the applicant would be unduly prejudiced;
  - (c) the application is urgent; or

Note If an Initiating Application (Family Law) seeks interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental orders, and an earlier date is fixed for the hearing of the application under subrule 5.05 (4), the Application to the extent that it concerns final orders must be dealt with on the same court date (see subrule 4.03).

  - (a) the reason for the urgency is significant and credible; and
  - (b) there is a harm that will be avoided, remedied or mitigated by hearing the application earlier.

Note The court may order costs against a party who has unreasonably had a matter listed for urgent hearing.

Chapter 6    Parties

Summary of Chapter 6

Chapter 6 sets out who are the necessary parties to a case and how a person becomes, or ceases to be, a party or a case guardian.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 6.1            General

6.01    Parties

A party includes the following:

- (a) an applicant in a case;
- (b) an appellant in an appeal;
- (c) a respondent to an application or appeal;
- (d) an intervener in a case.

Note 1 An independent children's lawyer is not a party to a case but must be treated as a party (see rule 8.02).

Note 2 Pre-action procedures must be complied with by all prospective parties under rule 1.05.

6.02    Necessary parties

- (1) A person whose rights may be directly affected by an issue in a case, and whose participation as a party is necessary for the court to determine all issues in dispute in the case, must be included as a party to the case.

Example

If a party seeks an order of a kind mentioned in section 90AE or 90AF of the Act, a third party who will be bound by the order must be joined as a respondent to the case.

- (2) If an application is made for a parenting order, the following must be parties to the case:

Rule 6.02

---

- (a) the parents of the child;
  - (b) any other person in whose favour a parenting order is currently in force in relation to the child;
  - (c) any other person with whom the child lives and who is responsible for the care, welfare and development of the child;
  - (d) if a State child order is currently in place in relation to the child — the prescribed child welfare authority.

Note Part IX of the Act deals with intervention in a case. Once a person has, by order or under rule 6.06, intervened in a case, the person becomes a party with all the rights and obligations of a party (see subsections 91 (2) and 91A (4), paragraph 91B (2) (b) and subsections 92 (3) and 92A (3) of the Act).

Chapter 7 Service

Summary of Chapter 7

Chapter 7 sets out the rules for serving documents and proving service. The rules in this chapter apply only to the service of documents in Australia and non-convention countries. The Regulations deal with service in countries that are party to certain conventions. If there is an inconsistency between the Regulations and these Rules, the Regulations prevail (see subsection 125 (3) of the Act).

When a court determines a case, the judicial officer must be satisfied that all the documents filed that are to be relied on in the case have been served or otherwise brought to the attention of the other parties to the case.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 7.1 General

7.01A Application

This Chapter does not apply to service of a document in a foreign country that is a party to a convention to which Australia is also a party regarding legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters.

Note Regulation 12 of the Regulations deals with service of documents in convention countries.

7.01 Service

Service of a document may be carried out by special service (see Part 7.2) or ordinary service (see Part 7.3) unless otherwise required by a legislative provision.

Note Certain applications must have other documents served with them. For example, an Initiating Application (Family Law), when served, must be accompanied by the brochure mentioned in rule 2.03; when a subpoena is served, the witness must be paid conduct money.

Rule 7.02

7.02 Court's discretion regarding service

- (1) A court may find that a document has been served or that it has been served on a particular date, even though these Rules or an order have not been complied with in relation to service.

Note Rule 7.17 also sets out when a document is taken to have been served.

- (2) The court may order a party, or a person applying to intervene in a case under rule 6.05, to serve a document or give written notice of a matter or case to a person specified in the order.

7.03 Service of documents

A person must serve a document in the manner set out in Table 7.1.

Table 7.1 Service of documents

7.04 Service of filed documents

- (1) A document that is filed must be served on each person to be served:
- (a) as soon as possible after the date of filing and within 12 months after that date; or
  - (b) if a provision elsewhere in these Rules specifies a time for service — within the specified time.

Note If a document is not served within the time required, service after that time is ineffective unless the court otherwise orders (see rules 1.12, 7.02 and 11.02).

- (1A) A person who serves a document filed by electronic communication must:
- (a) if the Registry Manager has sent the person who filed the document a communication recording the date of filing — ensure that a copy of the communication is served; or
  - (b) in any other case — write on the front of the served copy of the document the date of filing.
- (2) Despite subrule (1) and rule 7.03, the following documents do not have to be served on any other party:
- (a) a joint application;
  - (b) an application without notice;
  - (c) an Affidavit of Service;
  - (d) a document signed by all parties;

Rule 7.04

---

- (e) an affidavit seeking the issue, without notice, of an Enforcement Warrant under rule 20.16 or a Third Party Debt Notice under rule 20.32.

Note A draft consent order signed by all parties does not have to be served on the other parties to the application. However, if an order is sought affecting a superannuation interest, it must be served on the trustee of the superannuation fund in which that interest is held (see rule 10.16).

- (3) If a document or notice is served on or given to a party under these Rules, a copy of the document or notice must also be served on or given to any independent children's lawyer.
- (4) For subrule (1):
each person to be served, for a case, includes:
- (a) all parties to the case;

  - (c) any other person specifically required by a legislative provision or order to be served in the case.

Part 7.2                      Special service

Note Special service of a document may be performed by delivering the document:

- to the person to be served by hand (see rule 7.06) or by post or electronic communication (see rule 7.07); or
- if a lawyer representing the person undertakes, in writing, to accept service of the document, by delivering it to the person's lawyer (see rule 7.08).

7.05                      Special service

A document that must be served by special service must be personally received by the person served.

  - (b) tells the receiver what it is.
- (3) A party must not serve another party by hand but may be present when service by hand occurs.

7.07                      Special service by post or electronic communication

- (3) A person serving a document by post or electronic communication must include with the document:
- (a) an Acknowledgement of Service for the person served to sign; and
  - (b) for service by post within Australia — a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Note Subrule 24.07 (3) does not apply to an Acknowledgement of Service. If an applicant wants to prove service by electronic communication (other than by facsimile), the applicant must still produce a signed Acknowledgement of Service. This means that the person served will need to print out and sign a hard copy of the Acknowledgement of Service and arrange for the signed copy to be returned to the applicant in a form in which the applicant is able to identify the signature on the signed copy as that of the person served (see note to rule 7.14).

7.08 Special service through a lawyer

A document is taken to be served by special service on a person if:

- (a) a lawyer representing the person agrees, in writing, to accept service of the document for the person; and

- (2) For paragraph (1) (c), the person in charge of a hospital, nursing home or other care facility is taken to have the care of a person who is a patient in the hospital, nursing home or facility.

Note If a person with a disability wants to start, continue or respond to, or seek to intervene in, a case, the person may do so through a case guardian (see rule 6.08).

---

Rule 7.11

7.10 Special service on a prisoner

7.11 Special service on a corporation

A document that is required to be served by special service on a corporation must be served in accordance with section 109X of the Corporations Act 2001.

  - (iii) by sending it by post in a sealed envelope addressed to the person at the person's last known address or place of business;
- (d) if a lawyer representing the person agrees, in writing, to accept service of the document, by sending it to the lawyer; or
- (e) if the person's address for service includes the number of a lawyer's document exchange box, by delivering it in a sealed envelope, addressed to the lawyer at that box address, to:
  - (i) that box; or
  - (ii) a box provided at another branch of the document exchange for delivery of documents to the box address.

Part 7.4 Proof of service

- (1) Service of an application is proved:
  - (a) by filing an Affidavit of Service;

Note If a person serving a document seeks to prove service under this rule, an Acknowledgment of Service must be signed by the person served with the document. However, if the Affidavit of Service with the Acknowledgement of Service is filed by electronic communication, subrule 24.07 (4) applies to the original affidavit and the signed acknowledgment.

7.15 Evidence of identity

  - (a) to serve the document in another way; or
  - (b) to dispense with service of the document, with or without conditions.

- (2) The factors the court may have regard to when considering an application under subrule (1) include:
  - (a) the proposed method of bringing the document to the attention of the person to be served;
  - (b) whether all reasonable steps have been taken to serve the document or bring it to the notice of the person to be served;

Chapter 10 sets out how a party may resolve a case without a trial and the procedure to end a case, if agreement is reached.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 10.1 Offers to settle

Note Each party is encouraged at all times to make an offer to settle to the other party in an effort to resolve a case. This Part sets out the rules that apply to offers to settle in the Family Court. Part 10.1 contains two Divisions.

Division 10.1.1 applies to all offers to settle and provides for:

- (a) how an offer is made;
- (b) the form an offer is to take;
- (c) how an offer is accepted or withdrawn;
- (d) the timing of acceptance or withdrawal; and
- (e) what to do when an offer is accepted and a case is resolved.

Division 10.1.2 applies only to offers to settle in property cases in which an offer to settle must be made after a conciliation conference.

Division 10.1.1 General

10.01 How to make an offer

- (1) A party may make an offer to another party to settle all or part of a case by serving on the other party an offer to settle at any time before the court makes an order disposing of the case.

Note See also paragraph 117 (2A) (f) and section 117C of the Act in relation to offers to settle.

Rule 10.03

---

- (2) A party may make an offer to settle all or part of an appeal by serving on the other party an offer to settle at any time before the court makes an order disposing of the appeal.
- (3) An offer to settle:
  - (a) must be in writing; and
  - (b) must not be filed.

Note A later offer to settle has the effect of withdrawing an earlier offer (see subrule 10.03 (3)).

10.02 Open and 'without prejudice' offer

- (1) An offer to settle is made without prejudice (a without prejudice offer) unless the offer states that it is an open offer.
- (2) A party must not mention the fact that a without prejudice offer has been made, or the terms of the offer:
  - (a) in any document filed; or
  - (b) at a hearing or trial.
- (3) If a party makes an open offer, any party may disclose the facts and terms of the offer to other parties and the court.
- (4) Subrule (2) does not apply to:
  - (a) an application relating to an offer; or
  - (b) an application for costs.

10.03 How to withdraw an offer

- (1) A party may withdraw an offer to settle by serving a written notice on the other party that the offer is withdrawn.
- (2) A party may withdraw an offer to settle at any time before:
  - (a) the offer is accepted; or
  - (b) the court makes an order disposing of the application or appeal to which the offer relates.
- (3) A second or later offer by a party has the effect of withdrawing an earlier offer.

Rule 10.04

10.04 How to accept an offer

- (1) A party may accept an offer to settle by notice, in writing, to the party making the offer.
- (2) A party may accept an offer to settle at any time before:
  - (a) the offer is withdrawn; or
  - (b) the court makes an order disposing of the application or appeal.
- (3) If an offer to settle is accepted, the parties must lodge a draft consent order.

Note 1 The draft consent order should set out the orders agreed to by the parties and must be signed by both parties. Once lodged, it will be considered by the court under rule 10.17. The parties may agree to the dismissal of all applications.

Note 2 Paragraph 6.13 (1) (d) requires that, if a party seeks a consent order and a case guardian has been appointed for the party, the case guardian must file an affidavit stating why the consent order is in the best interests of the party, and any other matter the court may require.

10.05 Counter-offer

A party may accept an offer to settle even though the party has made a counter-offer to settle.

Division 10.1.2 Offer to settle — property cases

10.06 Compulsory offer to settle

- (1) This rule applies to a property case.
- (2) Each party must make a genuine offer to settle to all other parties within:
  - (a) 28 days after the conciliation conference;
  - (b) if no conciliation conference has been held — 28 days after the procedural hearing at which the case was allocated the first day before the Judge; or
  - (c) such further time as ordered by the court.

- (3) The offer to settle must state that it is made under this Division.

Example

The offer to settle must include a statement along the following lines:

‘This offer to settle is made under Division 10.1.2 of the Family Law Rules 2004.’

Note 1 For rules about making, withdrawing and accepting an offer, see Division 10.1.1.

Note 2 An offer to settle is a factor that must be taken into account when the court exercises its discretion in relation to costs (see paragraph 117 (2A) (f) of the Act).

Note 3 Rule 11.02 sets out the consequences of failing to comply with these Rules.

10.07 Withdrawal of offer

A party who withdraws an offer to settle made under this Division must, at the same time, make another genuine offer to settle.

Rule 10.10

Part 10.2 Discontinuing a case

10.10 Definition

In this Part:

case includes:

10.11 Discontinuing a case

Note Under subsection 79 (8) of the Act, a party may continue with an application for property even if one of the parties has died.

- (3) Discontinuance of a case by a party does not discontinue any other party's case.

Note If one or more joint applicants, but not all, discontinue a case, any discontinuing applicant becomes a respondent.

- (4) If a party discontinues a case, another party may apply for costs within 28 days after the Notice of Discontinuance is filed.
- (5) If:
  - (a) a party is required to pay the costs of another party because of the discontinuance of a case; and

Rule 10.11

---

(b) the party required to pay the costs starts another case on the same, or substantially the same, grounds before paying the costs;

the other party may apply for the case to be stayed until the costs are paid.

Rule 10.12

Part 10.3 Summary orders and separate decisions

Note An application under this Part is made by filing an Application in a Case and an affidavit (see rules 5.01 and 5.02).

10.12 Application for summary orders

A party may apply for summary orders after a response has been filed if the party claims, in relation to the application or response, that:

- (a) the court has no jurisdiction;
- (b) the other party has no legal capacity to apply for the orders sought;
- (c) it is frivolous, vexatious or an abuse of process; or
- (d) there is no reasonable likelihood of success.

- (d) order a hearing about an issue or fact; or

Rule 10.14

---

- (e) with the consent of the parties, order arbitration about the case or part of the case.

Note This list does not limit the powers of the court. The court may make orders on an application, or on its own initiative (see rule 1.10).

Rule 10.15

---

Part 10.4 Consent orders

10.15 How to apply for a consent order

  - (b) if there is no current case — by filing an Application for Consent Orders.

Note A case guardian for a party seeking a consent order (other than an order relating to practice or procedure), must file an affidavit setting out the facts relied on to satisfy the court that the consent order is in the party's best interests (see paragraph 6.13 (1) (d)).

- (1A) A party who files an Application for Consent Orders if there is no current case must:
  - (a) lodge a draft consent order; or

  - (d) be accompanied by additional copies of the order:
    - (i) so that there is a copy for each person to be served and an additional copy for the court; and
    - (ii) each of which is certified by the applicant's lawyer, or by each party to the application, as a true copy.

Rule 10.15A

- (4) A party applying for a consent order in a case mentioned in subrule (3) must file an Initiating Application (Family Law) as soon as the consent is received.

Note If an independent children's lawyer has been appointed in a case, the court will not make a consent order unless the independent children's lawyer has also signed the draft consent order (see subrule 8.02 (4)).

10.15A Consent parenting orders and allegations of abuse or family violence

- (1) This rule applies if an application is made to the court in a current case for a parenting order by consent.
- (2) If an application is made orally during a hearing or trial, each party, or if represented by a lawyer, the party's lawyer:
- (a) must advise the court whether the party considers that the child concerned has been, or is at risk of being, subjected to or exposed to abuse, neglect or family violence;
  - (b) must advise the court whether the party considers that he or she, or another party to the proceedings, has been or is at risk of being subjected to family violence; and
  - (c) if allegations of abuse or family violence have been made—must explain to the court how the order attempts to deal with the allegations.
- (3) For any other application each party, or if represented by a lawyer, the party's lawyer:
- (a) must certify in an annexure to the draft consent order whether the party considers that the child concerned has been, or is at risk of being, subjected to or exposed to abuse, neglect or family violence;

Rule 10.16

---

- (b) must certify in the annexure whether the party considers that he or she, or another party to the proceedings, has been or is at risk of being subjected to family violence; and
- (c) if allegations of abuse or family violence have been made—must explain in the annexure how the order attempts to deal with the allegations.

10.16 Notice to superannuation trustee

- (1) This rule applies in a property case if a party intends to apply for a consent order which is expressed to bind the trustee of an eligible superannuation plan.
- (2) The party must, not less than 28 days before lodging the draft consent order or filing the Application for Consent Orders, notify the trustee of the eligible superannuation plan in writing of the following:
  - (a) the terms of the order that will be sought to bind the trustee;
  - (b) the next court event (if any);
  - (c) that the parties intend to apply for the order sought if no objection to the order is received from the trustee within the time mentioned in subrule (3);
  - (d) that if the trustee objects to the order sought, the trustee must give the parties written notice of the objection within the time mentioned in subrule (3).
- (3) If the trustee does not object to the order sought within 28 days after receiving notice under subrule (2), the party may file the application or lodge the draft consent order.
- (4) Despite subrule (3), if, after service of notice under subrule (2) on the trustee, the trustee consents, in writing, to the order being made, the parties may file the Application for Consent Orders or lodge the draft consent order.

Note Eligible superannuation plan is defined in section 90MD of the Act.

Note A party applying for a consent order must satisfy the court as to why the consent order should be made.

10.18 Lapsing of respondent's consent

A respondent's consent to an application that an order be made in the same terms as the draft consent order attached to a Application for Consent Orders lapses if:

- (a) 90 days have passed since the date of the first statement of truth in the Application for Consent Orders; and
- (b) the Application for Consent Orders has not been filed.

Rule 11.01

Chapter 11 Case management

Summary of Chapter 11

Chapter 11 sets out the ways the court may manage a case to achieve the main purpose of these Rules (see rule 1.04), including:

- making procedural orders;
- limiting the issues in dispute;
- permitting amendment of applications or documents to clarify the issues in dispute; and
- changing the venue of a case.

The rules in Chapter 11 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 11.1 Court's powers of case management

11.01 General powers

The court may exercise any of the powers mentioned in Table 11.1 to manage a case to achieve the main purpose of these Rules (see rule 1.04).

Table 11.1 Court's powers

Item	Subject	Power

Note 1 The powers mentioned in this rule are in addition to any powers given to the court under a legislative provision or that it may otherwise have.

Note 2 Rule 1.10 provides that a court may make an order on its own initiative and sets out what other things the court may do when making an order or giving a party permission to do something.

11.02 Failure to comply with a legislative provision or order

- (1) If a step is taken after the time specified for taking the step by these Rules, the Regulations or a procedural order, the step is of no effect.

Note A defaulter may apply to the court for relief from this rule (see rule 11.03).

- (2) If a party does not comply with these Rules, the Regulations or a procedural order, the court may:
- (a) dismiss all or part of the case;
  - (b) set aside a step taken or an order made;

Rule 11.04

---

- (g) make any other order the court considers necessary, having regard to the main purpose of these Rules (see rule 1.04).

Note This list does not limit the powers of the court. It is an expectation that a non-defaulting party will minimise any loss.

11.03 Relief from orders

- (1) A party may apply for relief from:
- (a) the effect of subrule 11.02 (1); or
  - (b) an order under subrule 11.02 (2).
- (2) In determining an application under subrule (1), the court may consider:
- (a) whether there is a good reason for the non-compliance;
  - (b) the extent to which the party has complied with orders, legislative provisions and the pre-action procedures;
  - (c) whether the non-compliance was caused by the party or the party's lawyer;
  - (d) the impact of the non-compliance on the management of the case;
  - (e) the effect of non-compliance on each other party;
  - (f) costs;
  - (g) whether the applicant should be stayed from taking any further steps in the case until the costs are paid; and
  - (h) if the application is for relief from the effect of subrule 11.02 (1) — whether all parties consent to the step being taken after the specified time.

Note 1 This list does not limit the powers of the court. See also subrule 1.12 (3).

Note 2 A party may make an application under this rule by filing an Application in a Case or, with the court's permission, orally at a court event.

11.04 Frivolous or vexatious case

- (1) If the court is satisfied that a party has frequently started a case or appeal that is frivolous, vexatious or an abuse of process, it may:
- (a) dismiss the party's application; and

Rule 11.05

---

(b) order that the party may not, without the court's permission, file or continue an application.

(2) The court may make an order under subrule (1):

(a) on its own initiative; or

(b) on the application of:

(i) a party;

(ii) for the Family Court of Australia — a Registry Manager; or

(iii) for the Family Court of a State — the Executive Officer.

(3) The court must not make an order under subrule (1) unless it has given the applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

Note Under section 118 of the Act, the court may dismiss a case that is frivolous or vexatious and, on application, may prevent the person who started the case from starting a further case. Chapter 5 sets out the procedure for making an application under this rule.

11.05 Application for permission to start a case

(1) This rule applies if:

(a) the court has made an order under subsection 118 (1) of the Act or paragraph 11.04 (1) (b); and

(b) the person against whom the order was made applies for permission to start or continue a case.

(2) The application must be in an Application in a Case and must be made without notice to any other party.

Note An applicant must file an affidavit stating the facts relied on to establish the need for the orders sought (see rule 5.02).

(3) On the first court date for the application:

(a) the court may dismiss the application; or

(b) the court may:

(i) order the person to:

(A) serve the application and affidavit; and

(B) file and serve any further affidavits in support of the application; and

(ii) list the application for hearing.

---

Rule 11.06

- (4) The court must not grant permission to start or continue a case unless it is satisfied that the case has a reasonable likelihood of success.

11.06 Dismissal for want of prosecution

- (1) If a party has not taken a step in a case for one year, the court may:
- (a) dismiss all or part of the case; or
  - (b) order an act to be done within a fixed time, in default of which the party's application will be dismissed.
- (2) The court must not make an order under subrule (1) unless, at least 14 days before making the order, the court has given the parties written notice of the date and time when it will consider whether to make the order.
- (3) If:
- (a) an application is dismissed under subrule (1);
  - (b) a party is ordered to pay the costs of another party; and
  - (c) before the costs are paid, the party ordered to pay them starts another application on the same or substantially the same grounds;
- the other party may apply for the case to be stayed until the costs are paid.

Note This rule applies unless the court orders otherwise (see rule 1.12).

Rule 11.07

---

Part 11.2 Limiting issues

Division 11.2.1 Admissions

Note To reduce cost and delay, parties are encouraged to make admissions in relation to facts and documents. The admission is for the purposes of the case only, in order to narrow the issues in dispute. A party should give the other party written notice of any admissions as early as practicable in the case. For example, if admissions are made before the disclosure process, disclosure may be able to be limited and the costs of the case reduced.

11.07 Request to admit

- (1) A party may, by serving a Notice to Admit on another party, ask the other party to admit, for the purposes of the case only, that a fact is true or that a document is genuine.
- (2) A Notice to Admit must include a note to the effect that, under subrule 11.08 (2), failure to serve a Notice Disputing a Fact or Document will result in the party being taken to have admitted that the fact is true or the document is genuine.
- (3) If a Notice to Admit mentions a document, the party serving the Notice must attach a copy of the document to the notice, unless:
  - (a) the other party has a copy of the document; or
  - (b) it is not practicable to attach the copy to the Notice.
- (4) If paragraph (3) (b) applies, the party must:
  - (a) in the Notice:
    - (i) identify the document; and
    - (ii) specify a convenient place and time at which the document may be inspected; and
  - (b) produce the document for inspection at the specified place and time.

11.08 Notice disputing fact or document

- (1) If a party who is served with a Notice to Admit seeks to dispute a fact or document specified in the Notice, the party must serve on the party who served the Notice, within 14 days after it was served, a Notice Disputing the Fact or Document.
- (2) If a party does not serve a notice in accordance with subrule (1), the party is taken to admit, for the purposes of the case only, that the fact is true or the document is genuine.
- (3) If:
  - (a) a party serves a Notice Disputing a Fact or Document; and
  - (b) the fact or the genuineness of the document is later proved in the case;the party who served the Notice may be ordered to pay the costs of proof.

11.09 Withdrawing admission

- (1) A party may withdraw an admission that a fact is true or a document is genuine only with the court's permission or the consent of all parties.
- (2) When allowing a party to withdraw an admission, the court may order the party to pay any other party's costs thrown away.
- (3) In subrule (1):

admission includes an admission in a document in the case or taken to be made under subrule 11.08 (2).

Note The court may, on application, order that a party not pay costs (see rule 1.12).

Rule 11.10

---

Division 11.2.2 Amendment

11.10 Amendment by a party or court order

- (1) A party who has filed an application or response may amend the application or response:
  - (a) for a case started by an Initiating Application (Family Law):
    - (i) at any time before the procedural hearing at which the case is allocated the first day before the Judge; or
    - (ii) if the court gives permission — at a later time;
  - (b) for an Application in a Case:
    - (i) at or before the first court date; or
    - (ii) at any later time, with the consent of the other parties or by order; and
  - (c) for all other applications — at any time, with the consent of the other parties or by order.

Note An amendment of an application may be necessary to ensure that the court determines the real issues between the parties or to avoid multiple cases.

- (2) A party who:
  - (a) has filed an Initiating Application (Family Law) or Response to an Initiating Application (Family Law); and
  - (b) seeks to add or substitute another cause of action or another person as a party to the case;must amend the Form in accordance with this Division.
- (3) If an amendment mentioned in subrule (2) is made after the first court date, the Registry Manager must set a date for a further procedural hearing.
- (4) If a date is set for a further procedural hearing, the party amending the Initiating Application (Family Law) or Response to an Initiating Application (Family Law) under subrule (2) must give each other party written notice of the hearing.

11.11 Time limit for amendment

A party who has been given permission by the court to amend an application must do so within 7 days after the order is made.

Note The court may shorten or extend the time for compliance with a rule (see rule 1.14).

11.12 Amending a document

- (1) A party must amend a document by filing a copy of the document:
  - (a) with the amendment clearly marked; and
  - (b) if the document is amended by order — endorsed with the date when the order and amendment are made.
- (2) If the court gives permission for a party to amend a document, the permission is taken to be given by court order.

Example

An amendment may be made by:

- (a) placing a line through the text to be changed; and
- (b) underlining the new text or using a different type-face to indicate the new text.

Note Rule 13.06 sets out the requirements for amending a Financial Statement.

11.13 Response to amended document

If an amended document that has been served on a party affects a document (the affected document) previously filed by the party, the party may amend the affected document:

- (a) in accordance with rule 11.12; and
- (b) not more than 14 days after the amended document was served on the party.

11.14 Disallowance of amendment

The court may disallow an amendment of a document.

Example

The court may disallow an amendment if it is frivolous, vexatious or not in accordance with these Rules or an order.

Rule 11.16

---

Part 11.3 Venue

Division 11.3.2 Transferring a case

11.17 Transfer to another court or registry

A party may apply to have a case:

- (a) heard at another place; or

- (2) Subrule (1) does not apply if the parties are seeking a consent order that will finally dispose of the case.

12.12 Attendance by electronic communication

Rules 5.06 and 5.07 apply in relation to the use of electronic communication to attend a court event (other than a trial) as if the court event were a hearing.

Note Rule 16.05 sets out the requirements in relation to attending a trial by electronic communication.

12.13 Failure to attend court events

Chapter 13 Disclosure

Summary of Chapter 13

Chapter 13 sets out the rules about:

- a party's duty to make early, full and continuing disclosure of all information relevant to the case to each other party and the court; and
- the timing, extent and method of discharging the duty of disclosure and how the duty can be enforced.

The aim of disclosure is to help parties to focus on genuine issues, reduce cost and encourage settlement, of the case.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

13.01 General duty of disclosure

- (1) Subject to subrule (3), each party to a case has a duty to the court and to each other party to give full and frank disclosure of all information relevant to the case, in a timely manner.

Note Failure to comply with the duty may result in the court excluding evidence that is not disclosed or imposing a consequence, including punishment for contempt of court. This Chapter sets out a number of ways that a party is either required, or can be called upon, to discharge the party's duty of disclosure, including:

- (a) disclosure of financial circumstances (see Division 13.1.2);
- (b) disclosure and production of documents (see Division 13.2.1); and
- (c) disclosure by answering specific questions in certain circumstances (see Part 13.3).

- (2) The duty of disclosure starts with the pre-action procedure for a case and continues until the case is finalised.

Note The duty of disclosure applies to a case guardian for a child and a person with a disability (see subrule 6.13 (2)).

- (3) This rule does not apply to a respondent in an application alleging contravention or contempt.

Division 13.1.2 Duty of disclosure — financial cases

13.02 Purpose of Division 13.1.2

- (1) This Division sets out the duty of disclosure required by parties to a financial case.

Note The court may order a party to file an affidavit giving further particulars in relation to the party's financial affairs.

13.06 Amendment of Financial Statement

If a party's financial circumstances have changed significantly from the information set out in the Financial Statement or the affidavit filed under rule 13.05, the party must, within 21 days after the change of circumstances, file:

13.11 Costs for inspection

A party who fails to inspect a document under a notice given under rule 13.08 or 13.09 or paragraph 13.20 (3) (a) may not later do so unless the party tenders an amount for the reasonable costs of providing another opportunity for inspection.

Note The court may, on application, order that a party not pay costs (see rule 1.12).

Evidence adduced at a hearing or trial must be admissible in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Evidence Act 1995 and these Rules. Note, though, that, subject to sections 4 and 5 of the Evidence Act 1995, that Act does not apply to the Family Court of Western Australia or any other court of a State.

A person may be prosecuted for knowingly making a false statement in evidence (see section 35 of the Crimes Act 1914).

Sections 69ZT to 69ZX of the Act apply to a case to which Division 12A of Part VII of the Act applies.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

15.01 Definition

In this Chapter:

relevant date, for an affidavit, report or document proposed to be entered into evidence, means the earlier of:

- (a) the first day of the final stage of the trial in which the affidavit, report or document is to be relied on in evidence;
or
- (b) the first day when the affidavit, report or document is to be relied on in evidence.

- (2) If the single expert witness was appointed by the parties, the expert witness must give each party a copy of the report at the same time.
- (3) If the single expert witness was appointed by the court, the expert witness must give the report to the Registry Manager.

Note An expert witness may seek procedural orders from the court under rule 15.60 if the expert witness considers that it would not be in the best interests of a child or a party to give a copy of a report to each party.

- (4) An applicant who has been given a copy of a report must file the copy but does not need to serve it.

15.49 Appointing another expert witness

- (1) If a single expert witness has been appointed to prepare a report or give evidence in relation to an issue, a party must not tender a report or adduce evidence from another expert witness on the same issue without the court's permission.
- (2) The court may allow a party to tender a report or adduce evidence from another expert witness on the same issue if it is satisfied that:
- (a) there is a substantial body of opinion contrary to any opinion given by the single expert witness and that the contrary opinion is or may be necessary for determining the issue;
  - (b) another expert witness knows of matters, not known to the single expert witness, that may be necessary for determining the issue; or
  - (c) there is another special reason for adducing evidence from another expert witness.

Rule 15.50

15.50 Cross-examination of single expert witness

- (1) A party wanting to cross-examine a single expert witness at a hearing or trial must inform the expert witness, in writing at least 14 days before the date fixed for the hearing or trial, that the expert witness is required to attend.
- (2) The court may limit the nature and length of cross-examination of a single expert witness.

Division 15.5.3 Permission for expert's evidence

15.51 Permission for expert's reports and evidence

- (1) A party must apply for the court's permission to tender a report or adduce evidence at a hearing or trial from an expert witness, except a single expert witness.
- (2) An independent children's lawyer may tender a report or adduce evidence at a hearing or trial from one expert witness on an issue without the court's permission.

15.52 Application for permission for expert witness

- (1) A party may seek permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness by filing an Application in a Case.

Note 1 A party who files an Application in a Case must, at the same time, file an affidavit stating the facts relied on in support of the orders sought (see subrule 5.02 (1)).

Note 2 The court may allow a party to make an oral application (see paragraph (h) in item 3 of Table 11.1 in rule 11.01).

- (2) The affidavit filed with the application must state:
  - (a) whether the party has attempted to agree on the appointment of a single expert witness with the other party and, if not, why not;
  - (b) the name of the expert witness;
  - (c) the issue about which the expert witness's evidence is to be given;

Rule 15.52

---

- (d) the reason the expert evidence is necessary in relation to that issue;
  - (e) the field in which the expert witness is expert;
  - (f) the expert witness's training, study or experience that qualifies the expert witness as having specialised knowledge on the issue; and
  - (g) whether there is any previous connection between the expert witness and the party.
- (3) When considering whether to permit a party to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness, the court may take into account:
- (a) the purpose of this Part (see rule 15.42);
  - (b) the impact of the appointment of an expert witness on the costs of the case;
  - (c) the likelihood of the appointment expediting or delaying the case;
  - (d) the complexity of the issues in the case;
  - (e) whether the evidence should be given by a single expert witness rather than an expert witness appointed by one party only; and
  - (f) whether the expert witness has specialised knowledge, based on the person's training, study or experience:
    - (i) relevant to the issue on which evidence is to be given; and
    - (ii) appropriate to the value, complexity and importance of the case.
- (4) If the court grants a party permission to tender a report or adduce evidence from an expert witness, the permission is limited to the expert witness named, and the field of expertise stated, in the order.

Note Despite an order under this rule, a party is not entitled to adduce evidence from an expert witness if the expert's report has not been disclosed or a copy has not been given to the other party (see rule 15.58).

Rule 15.53

---

Division 15.5.4 Instructions and disclosure of expert's report

15.53 Application of Division 15.5.4

15.54 Instructions to expert witness

- (1) A party who instructs an expert witness to give an opinion for a case or an anticipated case must:
  - (a) ensure the expert witness has a copy of the most recent version of, and has read, Divisions 15.5.4, 15.5.5 and 15.5.6 of these Rules; and
  - (b) obtain a written report from the expert witness.
- (2) All instructions to an expert witness must be in writing and must include:
  - (a) a request for a written report;
  - (b) advice that the report may be used in an anticipated or actual case;
  - (c) the issues about which the opinion is sought;
  - (d) a description of any matter to be investigated, or any experiment to be undertaken or issue to be reported on; and
  - (e) full and frank disclosure of information and documents that will help the expert witness to perform the expert witness's function.
- (3) The parties must give the expert an agreed statement of facts on which to base the report.
- (4) However, if the parties do not agree on a statement of facts:
  - (a) unless the court directs otherwise — each of the parties must give to the expert a statement of facts on which to base the report; and

- (b) the court may give directions about the form and content of the statement of facts to be given to the expert.

15.55 Mandatory disclosure of expert's report

- (1) A party who has obtained an expert's report for a parenting case, whether before or after the start of the case, must give each other party a copy of the report:
  - (a) if the report is obtained before the case starts — at least 2 days before the first court event; or
  - (b) if the report is obtained after the case starts — within 7 days after the party receives the report.
- (2) The party who discloses an expert's report must disclose any supplementary report and any notice amending the report under subrule 15.59 (5).

15.56 Provision of information about fees

A party who has instructed an expert witness must, if requested by another party, give each other party details of any fee or benefit received, or receivable, by or for the expert witness, for the preparation of the report and for services provided, or to be provided, by or for the expert witness in connection with the expert witness giving evidence for the party in the case.

15.57 Application for provision of information

- (1) This rule applies if the court is satisfied that:
  - (a) a party (the disclosing party) has access to information or a document that is not reasonably available to the other party (the requesting party); and
  - (b) the provision of the information or a copy of the document is necessary to allow an expert witness to carry out the expert witness's function properly.

Rule 15.58

---

- (2) The requesting party may apply for an order that the disclosing party:
- (a) file and serve a document specifying the information in enough detail to allow the expert witness to properly assess its value and significance; and
  - (b) give a copy of the document to the expert witness.

Note An expert witness may request the court to make an order under this rule (see rule 15.60).

15.58 Failure to disclose report

A party who fails to give a copy of an expert's report to another party or the independent children's lawyer (if any) must not use the report or call the expert witness to give evidence at a hearing or trial, unless the other party and independent children's lawyer consent to the report being used or the expert witness being called, or the court orders otherwise.

Division 15.5.5 Expert witness's duties and rights

15.59 Expert witness's duty to the court

- (1) An expert witness has a duty to help the court with matters that are within the expert witness's knowledge and capability.
- (2) The expert witness's duty to the court prevails over the obligation of the expert witness to the person instructing, or paying the fees and expenses of, the expert witness.
- (3) The expert witness has a duty to:

  - (c) avoid acting on an instruction or request to withhold or avoid agreement when attending a conference of experts;

      - (B) is incomplete or may be inaccurate, for any reason; and
  - (f) produce a written report that complies with rules 15.62 and 15.63.
- (4) The expert witness's duty to the court arises when the expert witness:
    - (a) receives instructions under rule 15.54; or

  - (5) An expert witness who changes an opinion after the preparation of a report must give written notice to that effect:
    - (a) if appointed by a party — to the instructing party; or
    - (b) if appointed by the court — to the Registry Manager and each party.
  - (6) A notice under subrule (5) is taken to be part of the expert's report.

15.60 Expert witness's right to seek orders

- (1) Before final orders are made, a single expert witness may, by written request to the court, seek a procedural order to assist in carrying out the expert witness's function.

- (b) set out the procedural orders sought and the reason the orders are sought.
- (3) The expert witness must serve a copy of the request on each party and satisfy the court that the copy has been served.
- (4) The court may determine the request in chambers unless:
  - (a) within 7 days of being served with the request, a party makes a written objection to the request being determined in chambers; or
  - (b) the court decides that an oral hearing is necessary.

15.61 Expert witness's evidence in chief

- (1) An expert witness's evidence in chief comprises the expert's report, any changes to that report in a notice under subrule 15.59 (5) and any answers to questions under rule 15.66.
- (2) An expert witness has the same protection and immunity in relation to the contents of a report disclosed under these Rules or an order as the expert witness could claim if the contents of the report were given by the expert witness orally at a hearing or trial.

15.62 Form of expert's report

- (1) An expert's report must:
  - (a) be addressed to the court and the party instructing the expert witness;
  - (b) have attached to it a summary of the instructions given to the expert witness and a list of any documents relied on in preparing the report; and

  - (vii) a summary of the conclusions reached;
  - (viii) if necessary, a disclosure that:

Rule 15.64

---

- (a) order the expert witness to attend court;

16.05 Attendance, submissions and evidence by electronic communication

Note The issue of whether a party wishes to attend, make a submission, give evidence or adduce evidence from a witness at any court event that is Judge managed by electronic communication will be discussed at the appropriate court event, and any application in that respect will be referred to a Judge without formal application or affidavit material. In other cases, an application should be made under rule 16.05.

- (1) A party may apply for permission to do any of the following things by electronic communication at any court event that is Judge managed:
- (a) attend;

    - (iii) the relevance of the evidence to the issues;
    - (iv) whether the witness is an expert witness;
    - (v) the name, address and occupation of any person who is to be present when the evidence is given;
    - (vi) if the applicant proposes to refer the witness to a document, whether:
      - (A) the document has been filed; and
      - (B) the witness will have a copy of the document; and
    - (vii) whether an interpreter is required and, if so, what arrangements are to be made;
  - (f) the expense of using the electronic communication, including any expense to the court, and the applicant's proposals for paying those expenses;
  - (g) whether the other parties object to the use of electronic communication for the purpose specified in the application and, if so, the reason for the objection;
  - (h) if the application relates to evidence to be adduced from a witness in a foreign country — the matters required to be addressed under rule 16.06;
  - (i) if the application relates to making a submission, giving evidence or adducing evidence from New Zealand — the facilities that enable evidence to be given or a submission to be made, as required by Part 4 of the Evidence and Procedure (New Zealand) Act 1994.

Note Part 4 of the Evidence and Procedure (New Zealand) Act 1994 (the EP Act) applies to proceedings in a federal court, or a court specified in regulations made under the EP Act, in which a direction is made for the use of video link or telephone to take evidence or make a submission from New Zealand.

Subsection 25 (2) of the EP Act sets out the matters of which a court must be satisfied before it may make a direction under subsection 25 (1) of that

---

Act. The EP Act also provides that evidence is not to be given, or a submission made, from New Zealand unless the place where the court is sitting and the place where the evidence is to be given or a submission made are equipped with facilities enabling the persons at each place to see and hear each other in the case of video link (see section 26), or to hear each other in the case of a telephone conference (see section 27).

- (4) The application may be decided in chambers on the documents filed.
- (5) The court may order:
  - (a) a party to pay the expenses of the attendance by electronic communication; or
  - (b) that the expenses are to be apportioned between the parties.
- (6) For paragraph (3) (h):
foreign country has the meaning given by subrule 16.06 (2).

16.06 Foreign evidence by electronic communication

- (1) In addition to the requirements of rule 16.05, a party who proposes to adduce evidence by electronic communication from a witness in a foreign country must satisfy the court:
  - (a) that the party has read the information published by the Attorney-General's Department about its arrangements with other countries for the taking of evidence, to determine the attitude of the foreign country's government to the taking of evidence by electronic communication;
  - (b) if the attitude of the foreign country's government to the taking of evidence by electronic communication cannot be ascertained from sources within Australia — that the party has made appropriate inquiries through diplomatic channels, a lawyer or a provider of technical facilities in the foreign country to determine that attitude;
  - (c) whether permission is needed from the foreign country's government to adduce evidence from a witness in that country by electronic communication;
  - (d) if permission is needed, whether permission has been granted or refused;
  - (e) if permission has been refused, the reason for refusal; and

Rule 16.07

---

- (f) whether there are any special requirements for the adducing of evidence, including:
- (i) the administration of an oath; and
  - (ii) the form of the oath.

Note Chapter 5 sets out the procedure for making an application for interim, procedural, ancillary or other incidental orders.

- (2) In this rule:

foreign country means a country other than Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom or the United States of America.

Note 1 A party seeking to adduce evidence from a witness in Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom or the United States of America does not have to comply with subrule (1) because these countries do not object to the taking of evidence by electronic communication.

Note 2 The court, instead of granting permission for a party to adduce evidence by electronic communication from a witness in a foreign country, may direct the Registry Manager to send a letter of request to the judicial authorities in the foreign country, requesting the court to take evidence from the witness in accordance with the law of the foreign country. For the requirements for a letter of request to the judicial authorities of a foreign country, see rule 15.73.

16.07 Parties' participation

- (1) Each party to an application set down for hearing on the first day before the Judge must attend in person and, if legally represented, with their legal representatives.

Note The court may dispense with compliance with a rule (see rule 1.12).

- (2) If a party does not attend on the first day before the Judge, the other party may seek the orders sought in that party's application by, if necessary, adducing evidence to establish an entitlement to those orders in a manner ordered by the court.
- (3) If no party attends the first day before the Judge, the court may dismiss all applications before it.

  - (a) a sealed copy of an order;
  - (b) if the order is rectified by the court — a sealed copy of the rectified order; and

- (1) If a party claims that there is an error in an order issued by the court, the party must give written notice of the error to the Registry Manager and all parties.
- (2) A Registrar may rectify an error that appears obvious on reading the order.

Example

A kind of amendment that a Registrar may make under subrule (2) is the correction of a typographical error.

- (3) If the Registrar:
  - (a) is in doubt about whether there is an error in an order; or
  - (b) believes that an error in an order has, or may have, arisen from an accidental slip or omission;the Registrar may take action under subrule (4).
- (4) If subrule (1) or (3) applies, the party or Registrar may, after giving reasonable notice to each party, refer the order to the judicial officer who made it.

Note If the judicial officer who made the order is unavailable, it may be referred to another judicial officer (see rule 1.13).

- (5) A judicial officer may, after giving each party a reasonable opportunity to be heard, rectify a suspected error referred to the judicial officer.

If a court orders the payment of a fine or the forfeiture of a bond, the fine or forfeited amount must be paid immediately into the filing registry.

Note 1 A person may apply to the court for more time to pay a fine (see rule 1.14).

Chapter 19 Party/party costs

Summary of Chapter 19

Chapter 19 regulates the costs between parties for fresh applications in family law cases, except any part of a case in which a Family Court is exercising its bankruptcy jurisdiction. Chapter 26 contains provisions which regulate the charges of lawyers for a part of a case involving bankruptcy matters.

For a dispute between a lawyer and a client about the costs charged by the lawyer:

- (a) for a fresh application commenced after 30 June 2008;
- (b) under a new agreement between the lawyer and the client entered into after 30 June 2008; or
- (c) under a new retainer entered into by a client in the client's case after 30 June 2008, if the client instructs a new lawyer in a new firm;

see the State or Territory legislation governing the legal profession in the State or Territory where the lawyer practices.

For the meaning of fresh application, see the Dictionary.

Schedule 6 Costs — rules before 1 July 2008 sets out the rules that apply to cases not covered by this Chapter.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Part 19.6 Claiming and disputing costs

Division 19.6.1 Itemised costs account

Note This Division provides that, if an account payable by a person is not in an itemised form, the person has the right to request an itemised account (an itemised costs account). A person may apply to extend the time for taking any action required under these Rules (see rule 1.14).

19.20 Request for itemised costs account

A person who has received an account (except an itemised costs account) and wants to dispute the account, or any part of it, must, within 28 days after receiving the account, request the lawyer who sent it to serve an itemised costs account for the whole or part of the account disputed.

19.21 Service of lawyer's itemised costs account

- (1) A person entitled to party and party costs must serve an itemised costs account on the person liable to pay the costs within 28 days after the end of the case.

Note A person entitled to costs may serve an itemised costs account even if the person liable to pay the costs has not requested it.

- (3) The account must set out, in columns across the page, the following information:
  - (a) in relation to each item for which costs are payable:
    - (i) the date when the item occurred;
    - (ii) a description of the item, including whether the work was done by a lawyer or an employee or agent of a lawyer;
    - (iii) the amount payable for the item;
  - (b) at the end of the column setting out the amount payable — the total amount payable for the items.
- (4) For each expense claimed, the account must include:
  - (a) the date when the expense was incurred;
  - (b) the name of the person to whom the expense was paid;
  - (c) the nature of the expense; and
  - (d) the amount paid.

19.23 Disputing itemised costs account

A person served with an itemised costs account may dispute it by serving on the person entitled to the costs a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account within 28 days after the account was served.

Note 1 A person may apply for an extension of time to dispute an account (see rule 1.14).

Note 2 If no Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account is received and the costs are not paid, the person entitled to the costs may seek a costs assessment order (see rule 19.37).

Note 3 If the parties agree on the amount to be paid for costs, they may file a draft consent order (see Part 10.4 for consent orders).

19.24 Assessment of disputed costs

- (1) This rule applies if a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account has been served under rule 19.23.
- (2) The parties to a dispute in relation to costs must make a reasonable and genuine attempt to resolve the dispute.

Rule 19.26

- (3) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, either party may ask the court to determine the dispute by filing in the filing registry of the court where the case was conducted the itemised costs account and the Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account no later than 42 days after the Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account was served.
- (4) The court may take into account a failure to comply with subrule (2) when considering any order for costs.

Note 1 A party may apply for an extension of the time mentioned in subrule (3) (see rule 1.14).

Note 2 A person filing a document must serve the document on each person to be served (see subrule 7.04 (4)).

19.25 Amendment of itemised costs account and Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account

A party may amend an itemised costs account or a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account by filing the amended document with the amendments clearly marked:

- (a) at least 14 days before the date fixed for the assessment hearing; or
- (b) after that time with the consent of the other party.

Note 1 A party amending an itemised costs account or Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account may apply for an extension of the time mentioned in paragraph (a) (see rule 1.14).

Note 2 The only items that may be raised at an assessment hearing are those items included in the itemised costs account or Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account (see subrule 19.32 (2)).

Division 19.6.2 Assessment process

19.26 Fixing date for first court event

- (1) On the filing of an itemised costs account and a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account under subrule 19.24 (3), the Registrar must fix a date for:
- (a) a settlement conference (see rule 19.28);
- (b) a preliminary assessment (see rule 19.29); or
- (c) an assessment hearing (see rule 19.32).

Rule 19.27

---

- (2) The date fixed must be at least 21 days after the Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account is filed.

19.27 Notification of hearing

A party filing a Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account must give the party who served the itemised costs account at least 14 days notice of the court event and the date fixed for the event under rule 19.26.

19.28 Settlement conference

At a settlement conference for an itemised costs account, the Registrar:

- (a) must:
- (i) give the parties an opportunity to agree about the amount for which a costs assessment order should be made; or
  - (ii) identify the issues in dispute; and
- (b) must make procedural orders for the future conduct of the assessment process.

19.29 Preliminary assessment

- (1) At a preliminary assessment of an itemised costs account, the Registrar must, in the absence of the parties, calculate the amount (the preliminary assessment amount) for which, if the costs were to be assessed, the costs assessment order would be likely to be made.
- (2) The Registrar must give each party written notice of the preliminary assessment amount.

19.30 Objection to preliminary assessment amount

- (1) A party may object to the preliminary assessment amount by:
- (a) giving written notice of the objection to the Registrar and the other party; and

Rule 19.32

- (b) paying into court a sum equal to 5% of the total amount claimed in the itemised costs account as security for the cost of any assessment of the account;

within 21 days after receiving written notice of the preliminary assessment amount.

- (2) On receiving a notice and security, the Registrar must fix a date for an assessment hearing for the itemised costs account.
- (3) The party objecting may be ordered to pay the other party's costs of the assessment from the date of giving notice under paragraph (1) (a) unless the itemised costs account is assessed with a variation in the objecting party's favour of at least 20% of the preliminary assessment amount.

Note The court may order that a party is not required to pay security under paragraph (1) (b).

19.31 If no objection to preliminary assessment

If:

- (a) a Registrar does not receive a notice of objection under paragraph 19.30 (1) (a); and
- (b) an amount as security for costs is not paid under paragraph 19.30 (1) (b);

the Registrar may make a costs assessment order for the amount of the preliminary assessment amount.

19.32 Assessment hearing

- (1) The Registrar conducting an assessment hearing for a disputed itemised costs account must:
- (a) determine the amount (if any) to be deducted from each item included in the Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account;
- (b) determine the total amount payable for the costs of the assessment (if any);
- (c) calculate the total amount payable for the costs allowed;
- (d) deduct the total amount (if any) of costs paid or credited; and
- (e) calculate the total amount payable for costs.

Rule 19.33

---

- (2) At the assessment hearing, a party may only raise as an issue a disputed item included in the Notice Disputing Itemised Costs Account.
- (3) At the end of the assessment hearing, the Registrar must:
  - (a) make a costs assessment order; and
  - (b) give a copy of the order to each party.

Note At an assessment hearing, the onus of proof is on the person entitled to costs. That person should bring to the hearing all documents supporting the items claimed.
- (4) Within 14 days after the costs assessment order is made, a party may ask the Registrar to give reasons for the Registrar's decision about a disputed item.

19.33 Powers of Registrars

  - (h) if satisfied that there has been a gross or consistent breach of a lawyer's obligations under this Chapter — refer an issue to the appropriate professional regulatory body;
  - (i) refer to the court any question arising from the assessment;
  - (j) determine whether costs were reasonably incurred, were of a reasonable amount and were proportionate to the matters in issue;
  - (k) make a consent order fixing the amount of costs to be paid;
  - (l) dismiss an account if:
    - (i) it does not comply with these Rules or an order; or

Rule 19.34

---

- (ii) the person entitled to costs does not attend the assessment hearing;
- (m) order costs;
- (n) do, or order another person to do, any other act that is required to be done under these Rules or an order.

Example for paragraph 19.33 (1) (h)

An example of the kind of issue that may be referred to a professional regulatory body for a lawyer is if the lawyer grossly overcharged a client or failed to disclose an important issue.

- (2) On being satisfied that the time for reviewing a costs assessment order has passed, the Registrar must:
  - (a) determine how any amount paid as security for the costs of assessment is to be distributed or refunded; and

Chapter 21 Enforcement of parenting orders, contravention of orders and contempt

Summary of Chapter 21

Chapter 21 sets out how a party may seek:

- an order to enforce a parenting order;
- an order that a person be punished for contravening an order, bond or sentence, or for contempt of court; or
- an order to locate or recover children Application should not be made under this Chapter unless an associated matter is pending in the court or filing with the Federal Magistrates Court is not available. Under section 33B of the Family Law Act 1975, the Family Court may transfer the proceeding to the Federal Magistrates Court without notice to the parties.

Before filing an application, a party should consider the result that the party wants to achieve. The remedies available from the court range from the enforcement of a bond or order to the punishment of a person for failure to comply with an order, bond or sentence. For example, the court may make an order that:

- ensures the resumption of the arrangements set out in an earlier order;
- compensates a person for time lost with a child;
- compensates a person for expenses incurred in attempting to spend time with a child;
- varies an existing order;
- puts a person on notice that, if the person does not comply with an order, the person will be punished; or
- punishes a person by way of a fine or imprisonment.

Contempt of court should be alleged only if the conduct complained of is serious enough to warrant such a serious charge, for example, if it is alleged that the contravention of an order involves a flagrant challenge to the court's authority (see subsection 112AP (1) of the Act). A person found to be in contempt of the court may be imprisoned.

The rules in Chapter 1 relating to the court's general powers apply in all cases and override all other provisions in these Rules.

A word or expression used in this Chapter may be defined in the dictionary at the end of these Rules.

Chapter 21	Enforcement of parenting orders, contravention of orders and contempt
Part 21.1	Applications for enforcement of orders, contravention of orders and contempt of court

Rule 21.01

Part 21.1 Applications for enforcement of orders, contravention of orders and contempt of court

21.01 Application of Part 21.1

This Part applies to an application for an order:

- (a) to enforce a parenting order;
- (b) under Division 13A of Part VII or Part XIII A of the Act;
or
- (d) that another person be punished for contempt of court.

Note 1 Subsection 69C (2) of the Act specifies who may apply for an order in relation to a child. Division 13A of Part VII of the Act sets out the consequences of failing to comply with an order or other obligation that affects children. Part XIII A of the Act sets out the sanctions the court may impose on a person who fails to comply with an order or other obligation that does not affect children. Part XIII B of the Act sets out the punishment the court may impose on a person found to be in contempt of court.

Note 2 If a maintenance order is complied with before an Application for Contempt is heard by the court, the failure to comply with the order that led to the Application for Contempt being filed does not constitute a contempt of court (see subsection 112AP (1A) of the Act).

Note 3 The court:

- (a) must not impose a sentence of imprisonment:
  - (i) for non-compliance with a maintenance order unless it is satisfied that the contravention was intentional or fraudulent (see subsections 70NFB (4) and 112AD (2A) of the Act); or
  - (ii) if it considers that another consequence is more appropriate (see subsections 70NFG (2) and 112AE (2) of the Act); and
- (b) cannot enforce an order of another court unless the order is registered in the first-mentioned court (see section 105 of the Act and regulation 17 of the Regulations).

21.02 How to apply for an order

- (1) A person seeking to apply for an order under this Part must file an application as set out in Table 21.1.
