10 Application of Part

- (1) The whole of this Part applies, notwithstanding any common law rule of private international law, in relation to:

 - (a) the applicant has attained the age of 16 years; and

- (4) Where a Judge or a magistrate to whom an application is made under this section is satisfied that the matter could more properly be dealt with by a Judge or a magistrate sitting at a place nearer the place where the applicant ordinarily resides, the Judge or magistrate may, in his or her discretion, refuse to proceed with the hearing of the application, but such a refusal shall not, for the purposes of section 19, be deemed to be a refusal of the application.
- (5) Where an order is made under this section and the marriage to which the order relates does not take place within 3 months after the date of the order, the order ceases to have effect.

13 Marriage of minor not to be solemnised without consent of parents etc.

- (1) Subject to this Part, where a party to an intended marriage, not having previously been married, is a minor, the marriage shall not be solemnised unless there is produced to the person by whom or in whose presence the marriage is solemnised:
 - (a) in respect of each person whose consent is required by this Act to the marriage of the minor, not being a person to whom paragraph (b) is applicable:
 - (i) the consent in writing of that person, duly witnessed and dated not earlier than 3 months before the date on which the marriage is solemnised or, in such cases as are prescribed, such other evidence that the consent of that person to the intended marriage has been given not earlier than that time as the regulations declare to be sufficient for the purposes of this section; or
 - (ii) an effective consent in writing of a magistrate or a Judge under this Part in place of the consent of that person; and
 - (b) in respect of any person whose consent to the marriage of the minor has been dispensed with by a prescribed authority—the dispensation in writing signed by the prescribed authority.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the consent of a person is only duly witnessed if the signature of that person was witnessed:
- (a) if the consent is signed in Australia—by one of the following persons:

 - (ii) a Commissioner for Declarations under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959;
 - (iii) a justice of the peace;
 - (iv) a barrister or solicitor;

 - (viii) an employee of the Australian Trade Commission authorised under paragraph 3(d) of the Consular Fees Act 1955.
- (3) A person shall not subscribe his or her name as a witness to the signature of a person to a consent to a marriage unless:
- (a) the person is satisfied on reasonable grounds as to the identity of that person; and
 - (b) the consent bears the date on which the person subscribes his or her name as a witness.
- (4) A person shall not solemnise a marriage if the person has reason to believe that:
- (a) a person whose consent in writing to the marriage of one of the parties is or has been produced for the purposes of this section has revoked his or her consent;

Section 14

- (b) the signature of a person to a consent produced for the purposes of this section is forged or has been obtained by fraud;
- (c) a consent produced for the purposes of this section has been altered in a material particular without authority; or
- (d) a dispensation with the consent of a person that has been produced in relation to the marriage has ceased to have effect.

14 Persons whose consent is required

- (1) The person or persons whose consent is required by this Act to the marriage of a minor shall, subject to this section, be ascertained by reference to the Schedule according to the facts and circumstances existing in relation to the minor.
- (2) For the purposes of the Schedule, a minor is an adopted child if the minor was adopted under the law of a State or Territory or under the law of any other place.
- (3) Where an Act, a State Act or an Ordinance of any Territory of the Commonwealth provides that a person specified in the Act, State Act or Ordinance is to be the guardian of a minor, or requires that a specified person is to be deemed to be the guardian of a minor, to the exclusion of any parent or other guardian of the minor, that person is the person whose consent is required by this Act to the marriage of the minor.
- (4) Where, under a State Act or an Ordinance of any Territory of the Commonwealth, a person specified in the State Act or Ordinance is to be, or is to be deemed to be, a guardian of a minor in addition to the parents or other guardian of the minor, the consent of that person is required to the marriage of the minor in addition to the consent of the person or persons ascertained in accordance with the Schedule.

15 Prescribed authority may dispense with consent in certain cases

- (1) Subject to this section, a prescribed authority may, upon application in writing by a minor, dispense with the consent of a person to a proposed marriage of the minor where the prescribed authority:

- (a) is satisfied that it is impracticable, or that it is impracticable without delay that would, in all the circumstances of the case, be unreasonable, to ascertain the views of that person with respect to the proposed marriage;
 - (b) has no reason to believe that that person would refuse his or her consent to the proposed marriage; and
 - (c) has no reason to believe that facts may exist by reason of which it could reasonably be considered improper that the consent should be dispensed with.
- (2) An application under this section shall be supported by a statutory declaration by the applicant setting out the facts and circumstances on which the application is based and may be supported by the statutory declaration of some other person.
- (3) The applicant shall state in his or her statutory declaration whether he or she has made any previous applications under this section that have been refused and the date on which each such application was refused.
- (4) This section does not authorise a prescribed authority to dispense with the consent of a person to a marriage of a minor where any other person whose consent to the marriage is required by this Act has refused to give consent, unless a magistrate or a Judge has, in pursuance of this Part, given consent in place of the consent of that other person.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the fact that a person does not reside in, or is absent from, Australia shall not of itself be deemed to make it impracticable to ascertain the views of that person.

16 Consent by magistrate where parent etc. refuses consent etc.

- (1) Where, in relation to a proposed marriage of a minor:
 - (a) a person whose consent to the marriage is required by this Act refuses to consent to the marriage; or
 - (b) an application by the minor under section 15 to dispense with the consent of a person to the marriage is refused;the minor may apply to a Judge or magistrate for the consent of a Judge or the magistrate to the marriage in place of the consent of that person.

Section 16

- (2) The Judge or magistrate shall, subject to subsections (2A) and (3), hold an inquiry into the relevant facts and circumstances and, if satisfied:
 - (a) in a case to which paragraph (1)(a) applies—that the person who has refused to consent to the marriage has refused consent unreasonably; or
 - (b) in a case to which paragraph (1)(b) applies—that, having proper regard for the welfare of the minor, it would be unreasonable for the Judge or magistrate to refuse consent to the proposed marriage;may give consent to the marriage in place of the consent of the person in relation to whose consent the application is made.
- (2A) A Judge or magistrate shall not proceed with an inquiry in accordance with subsection (2) unless:
 - (a) there has been produced to the Judge or magistrate a certificate in the prescribed form signed by a family counsellor certifying that the applicant has received counselling from the family counsellor in relation to the proposed marriage; or
 - (b) the Judge or magistrate is satisfied that counselling by a family counsellor is not reasonably available to the applicant.
- (3) Where a magistrate to whom an application is made under this section is satisfied that the matter could more properly be dealt with by a magistrate sitting at a place nearer the place where the applicant ordinarily resides, the magistrate may, in his or her discretion, refuse to proceed with the hearing of the application, but such a refusal shall not, for the purposes of sections 17 and 19, be deemed to be a refusal of the application.
- (4) Where a magistrate grants an application under subsection (1), the magistrate shall not issue consent in writing to the marriage before the expiration of the time prescribed for the purposes of section 17 and if, within that time, a request for a re-hearing is made under that section, the magistrate shall not issue consent unless that request is withdrawn.
- (5) Where a Judge or magistrate gives consent to the marriage of a minor in place of the consent of a person who has refused to consent to the marriage, the Judge or magistrate may also, upon application by the minor, give consent in place of the consent of any other person if the Judge or magistrate is satisfied that it is impracticable, or that it is impracticable without delay that would, in all the circumstances of the case, be unreasonable, to ascertain the views of that person with respect to the proposed marriage.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the fact that a person does not reside in, or is absent from, Australia shall not of itself be deemed to make it impracticable to ascertain the views of that person.
- (7) In this section family counsellor has the same meaning as in the Family Law Act 1975.

17 Re-hearing of applications by a Judge

- (1) Where:
 - (a) an application to a magistrate under subsection 16(1) or (5) is refused; or

A certificate, signed by the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants, stating that, at a specified time, or during a specified period:

- (a) a person was registered as a marriage celebrant; or

 - (c) a person was not registered as a marriage celebrant;
- is prima facie evidence of that fact.

Division 2—Marriages by authorised celebrants

40 Application of Division

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Division applies to and in relation to all marriages solemnised, or intended to be solemnised, in Australia.
- (2) This Division does not apply to or in relation to marriages to which Division 3 of this Part applies.

41 Marriages to be solemnised by authorised celebrant

A marriage shall be solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant who is authorised to solemnise marriages at the place where the marriage takes place.

42 Notice to be given and declaration made

- (1) Subject to this section, a marriage shall not be solemnised unless:
 - (a) notice in writing of the intended marriage has been given in accordance with this section and has been received by the authorised celebrant solemnising the marriage not earlier than 18 months before the date of the marriage and not later than 1 month before the date of the marriage;
 - (b) there has been produced to that authorised celebrant, in respect of each of the parties:
 - (i) an official certificate, or an official extract of an entry in an official register, showing the date and place of birth of the party; or
 - (ii) a statutory declaration made by the party or a parent of the party stating that, for reasons specified in the declaration, it is impracticable to obtain such a certificate or extract and stating, to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief and as accurately as the declarant has been able to ascertain, when and where the party was born; or
 - (iii) a passport issued by a government of an overseas country, showing the date and place of birth of the party; and

Section 42

- (c) each of the parties has made and subscribed before that authorised celebrant a declaration, in accordance with the prescribed form, as to:
 - (i) the party's conjugal status;
 - (ii) the party's belief that there is no legal impediment to the marriage; and
 - (iii) such other matters as are prescribed.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1):
 - (a) shall be in accordance with the prescribed form and contain such particulars in relation to the parties as are indicated in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) must be signed by each of the parties; and
 - (c) if a party signs the notice in Australia—must be signed in the presence of:
 - (i) an authorised celebrant; or
 - (ii) a Commissioner for Declarations under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959; or
 - (iii) a justice of the peace; or
 - (iv) a barrister or solicitor; or
 - (v) a legally qualified medical practitioner; or
 - (vi) a member of the Australian Federal Police or the police force of a State or Territory; and
 - (d) if a party signs the notice outside Australia—must be signed in the presence of:
 - (i) an Australian Diplomatic Officer; or
 - (ii) an Australian Consular Officer; or
 - (iii) a notary public; or
 - (iv) an employee of the Commonwealth authorised under paragraph 3(c) of the Consular Fees Act 1955; or
 - (v) an employee of the Australian Trade Commission authorised under paragraph 3(d) of the Consular Fees Act 1955.
- (3) However, if the signature of a party to an intended marriage cannot conveniently be obtained at the time when it is desired to give notice under this section, a notice duly signed by the other party and otherwise complying with the provisions of this section shall, if it is signed by the first-mentioned party in the presence of an authorised celebrant before the marriage is solemnised, be deemed to have been a sufficient notice.

- (4) Where a party to an intended marriage is unable, after reasonable inquiry, to ascertain all of the particulars in relation to that party required to be contained in a notice under this section, the failure to include in the notice such of those particulars as the party is unable to ascertain does not make the notice ineffective for the purposes of this section if, at any time before the marriage is solemnised, that party furnishes to the authorised celebrant solemnising the marriage a statutory declaration as to that party's inability to ascertain the particulars not included in the notice and the reason for that inability.
- (5) Despite a notice required by subsection (1) having been received later than 1 month before the date of the marriage, a prescribed authority may authorise an authorised celebrant to solemnise a marriage if the authority is satisfied that one or more of the circumstances prescribed in the regulations have been met.
- (5A) An authorised celebrant shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the notice referred to in subsection (1), give to the parties a document in the prescribed form outlining the obligations and consequences of marriage and indicating the availability of marriage education and counselling.
- (6) Where, by reason of the death, absence or illness of an authorised celebrant to whom a notice of intention to marry has been given, or for any other reason, it is impracticable for that person to solemnise the marriage, the marriage may be solemnised by any authorised celebrant who has possession of the notice.
- (7) The declarations of the parties required by subsection (1) shall both be written on the one paper and on the same side of that paper.
- (8) An authorised celebrant shall not solemnise a marriage:
 - (a) unless the authorised celebrant has satisfied himself or herself that the parties are the parties referred to in the notice given under this section in relation to the marriage; or
 - (b) if the authorised celebrant has reason to believe that:
 - (i) a notice given under this section; or

Section 42A

- (ii) a declaration made and subscribed under this section, or a statutory declaration made for the purposes of this section;
in relation to the marriage, contains a false statement or an error or is defective.
- (9) An authorised celebrant may permit an error in a notice under this section to be corrected in his or her presence by either of the parties at any time before the marriage to which it relates has been solemnised and may treat the corrected notice as having been originally given in its corrected form.
- (10) Where the declaration made by a party under subsection (1) states that that party is a divorced person or a widow or widower, an authorised celebrant shall not solemnise the marriage unless there is produced to him or her evidence of that party's divorce, or of the death of that party's spouse, as the case requires.

42A Commissioner of Australian Federal Police or approved authority may issue special notice

- (1) If the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police or a person who is an approved authority for the purposes of the Witness Protection Act 1994 gives to a Registrar a certificate under section 14 of that Act stating that the person has received the evidence referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of that section and the statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (d) of that section, the Registrar:
 - (a) if he or she is to solemnise the marriage himself or herself—is to treat the certificate as satisfying the requirements of section 42; or
 - (b) in any other case—is to give to the celebrant a notice in the prescribed form stating that the celebrant should treat the requirements of section 42 of this Act as having been met.
- (2) The names specified in the certificate are to be used in the marriage certificate.

43 Marriage may be solemnised on any day etc.

A marriage may be solemnised on any day, at any time and at any place.

44 Witnesses

A marriage shall not be solemnised unless at least 2 persons who are, or appear to the person solemnising the marriage to be, over the age of 18 years are present as witnesses.

45 Form of ceremony

- (1) Where a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, being a minister of religion, it may be solemnised according to any form and ceremony recognised as sufficient for the purpose by the religious body or organisation of which he or she is a minister.
- (2) Where a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, not being a minister of religion, it is sufficient if each of the parties says to the other, in the presence of the authorised celebrant and the witnesses, the words:
“I call upon the persons here present to witness that I, A.B. (or C.D.), take thee, C.D. (or A.B.), to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)”;
or words to that effect.
- (3) Where a marriage has been solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, a certificate of the marriage prepared and signed in accordance with section 50 is conclusive evidence that the marriage was solemnised in accordance with this section.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (3) makes a certificate conclusive:
 - (a) where the fact that the marriage ceremony took place is in issue—as to that fact; or
 - (b) where the identity of a party to the marriage is in issue—as to the identity of that party.

46 Certain authorised celebrants to explain nature of marriage relationship

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), before a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, not being a minister of religion of a recognised denomination, the authorised celebrant shall say to the parties, in the presence of the witnesses, the words:

Section 47

“I am duly authorised by law to solemnise marriages according to law.

“Before you are joined in marriage in my presence and in the presence of these witnesses, I am to remind you of the solemn and binding nature of the relationship into which you are now about to enter.

“Marriage, according to law in Australia, is the union of a man and a woman to the exclusion of all others, voluntarily entered into for life.”;

or words to that effect.

- (2) Where, in the case of a person authorised under subsection 39(2) to solemnise marriages, the Minister is satisfied that the form of ceremony to be used by that person sufficiently states the nature and obligations of marriage, the Minister may, either by the instrument by which that person is so authorised or by a subsequent instrument, exempt that person from compliance with subsection (1) of this section.

47 Ministers of religion not bound to solemnise marriage etc.

Nothing in this Part:

- (a) imposes an obligation on an authorised celebrant, being a minister of religion, to solemnise any marriage; or
- (b) prevents such an authorised celebrant from making it a condition of his or her solemnising a marriage that:
 - (i) longer notice of intention to marry than that required by this Act is given; or
 - (ii) requirements additional to those provided by this Act are observed.

48 Certain marriages not solemnised in accordance with this Division to be invalid

- (1) Subject to this section, a marriage solemnised otherwise than in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Division is not a valid marriage.
- (2) A marriage is not invalid by reason of all or any of the following:
 - (a) failure to give the notice required by section 42, or a false statement, defect or error in such a notice;

- (b) failure of the parties, or either of them, to make or subscribe a declaration as required by section 42, or a false statement, defect or error in such a declaration;
 - (c) failure to produce to the authorised celebrant a certificate or extract of an entry or a statutory declaration as required by section 42, or a false statement, defect or error in such a statutory declaration;
 - (d) failure to comply with any other requirement of section 42, or any contravention of that section;
 - (e) failure to comply with the requirements of section 44 or 46;
 - (f) failure to comply with the requirements of section 13.
- (3) A marriage is not invalid by reason that the person solemnising it was not authorised by this Act to do so, if either party to the marriage, at the time the marriage was solemnised, believed that that person was lawfully authorised to solemnise it, and in such a case the form and ceremony of the marriage shall be deemed to have been sufficient if they were such as to show an intention on the part of each of the parties to become thereby the lawfully wedded spouse of the other.

49 Authorised celebrant to retain consents, statutory declarations etc.

An authorised celebrant to whom a consent, dispensation with consent or statutory declaration is produced under this Act shall retain it in his or her possession until he or she deals with it in accordance with section 50.

50 Marriage certificates

- (1) Where an authorised celebrant solemnises a marriage, the authorised celebrant shall:
- (a) prepare a certificate of the marriage, in accordance with the prescribed form, for the purpose of issue to the parties to the marriage; and
 - (b) prepare 2 official certificates of the marriage in accordance with the prescribed form.
- (1A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(b), the regulations may provide that the person for the time being holding or acting in a specified office of a specified State or Territory shall prepare only 1 official certificate under that paragraph.

- (2) Immediately after the solemnisation of the marriage, the authorised celebrant, each of the parties to the marriage and 2 witnesses of the marriage who are, or appear to the authorised celebrant to be, over the age of 18 years shall sign each of the certificates so prepared.
- (3) One of the official certificates or the official certificate, as the case may be, shall be on the reverse side of the paper bearing the declarations made by the parties under section 42.
- (4) The authorised celebrant shall hand the certificate referred to in paragraph (1)(a) to one of the parties to the marriage on behalf of the parties, and:
 - (a) where 2 official certificates have been prepared:
 - (i) within 14 days after the solemnisation of the marriage, forward the official certificate to which subsection (3) applies, together with the notice under section 42, the order (if any) under section 12 and any statutory declarations, consents and dispensations with consents relating to the marriage that are in his or her possession, to the appropriate registering authority of a State or Territory ascertained in accordance with the regulations; and
 - (ii) retain the other official certificate and deal with it in accordance with the regulations; or
 - (b) where only 1 official certificate has been prepared—retain that certificate and deal with it in accordance with the regulations.
- (5) Where the authorised celebrant dies without having prepared and signed the certificates of the marriage, or where by reason of other special circumstances the Minister thinks it necessary to do so, the Minister may, if satisfied that the marriage was duly solemnised, prepare and sign the certificates with such modifications as are appropriate.
- (6) A certificate prepared and signed by the Minister under subsection (5) has the same force and effect as if it had been prepared and signed, in accordance with this section, by the authorised celebrant.

- (7) The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the furnishing of a substitute certificate in the event of the loss or destruction of a certificate of a marriage previously forwarded in pursuance of this section.

51 Incorrect marriage certificates

- (1) Where an authorised officer is satisfied, by statutory declaration or otherwise, that any particular in a certificate of marriage prepared and signed under section 50 is incorrect, the authorised officer may:
- (a) in the case of a certificate that has been handed to a party to the marriage or retained by the authorised celebrant—correct the certificate; and
 - (b) in the case of a certificate that has been forwarded to a registering authority—certify to that authority that a specified correction is necessary.
- (2) For the purposes of exercising his or her powers under paragraph (1)(a) in relation to a certificate, an authorised officer may, by notice in writing served on a party to the marriage, or the authorised celebrant, as the case requires, require the party or the authorised celebrant to produce or forward the certificate to the authorised officer within a period (not being less than 7 days from the date of service of the notice) specified in the notice.
- (2A) Where a marriage has been solemnised, or purports to have been solemnised, under this Part, and the marriage is void, an authorised officer may, by notice in writing served on a party to the marriage, require the party to deliver or forward to the authorised officer, within a period (not being less than 7 days from the date of service of the notice) specified in the notice, the certificate required, by subsection 50(4), to be handed to a party to the marriage.
- (3) A notice referred to in subsection (2) or (2A) may be served by post.
- (4) In this section, authorised officer means a person authorised by the Minister to perform the functions of an authorised officer under this section.

Part VA—Recognition of foreign marriages

88A Object of Part

The object of this Part is to give effect to Chapter II of the Convention on Celebration and Recognition of the Validity of Marriages signed at The Hague on 14 March 1978.

88B Interpretation

- (1) In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

Australia includes the external Territories.

local law, in relation to a marriage solemnised in a foreign country, means the law in force in the foreign country or in that part of the foreign country in which the marriage was solemnised.

- (2) A marriage shall be taken, for the purposes of this Part, to have been solemnised in a foreign country by or in the presence of a diplomatic or consular officer of another foreign country if the marriage was solemnised in the first-mentioned foreign country by or in the presence of a person who was recognised by the government of that country as a diplomatic or consular representative of the other foreign country.
- (3) In this Part, a reference to a marriage includes a reference to a purported marriage that is void or voidable but does not include a reference to a marriage solemnised under Part V.
- (4) To avoid doubt, in this Part (including section 88E) marriage has the meaning given by subsection 5(1).

88C Application of Part

- (1) This Part applies to and in relation to every marriage solemnised, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, in a foreign country where:
- (a) under the local law, the marriage was, at the time when it was solemnised, recognised as valid; or

Section 88D

- (b) if the marriage was solemnised by or in the presence of a diplomatic or consular officer of another foreign country:

 - (b) if the marriage was solemnised by or in the presence of a diplomatic or consular officer of another foreign country and, at the time when it was solemnised, the solemnisation of the marriage was not prohibited by the local law—is, at any time in relation to which the validity of the marriage falls to be determined, recognised as valid under the law of that other foreign country;
- this Part applies to and in relation to the marriage from and including that time.

88D Validity of marriages

- (2) A marriage to which this Part applies shall not be recognised as valid in accordance with subsection (1) if:
 - (a) either of the parties was, at the time of the marriage, a party to a marriage with some other person and the last-mentioned marriage was, at that time, recognised in Australia as valid;
 - (b) where one of the parties was, at the time of the marriage, domiciled in Australia—either of the parties was not of marriageable age within the meaning of Part II;
 - (c) the parties are within a prohibited relationship within the meaning of section 23B; or
 - (d) the consent of either of the parties was not a real consent for a reason set out in subparagraph 23B(1)(d)(i), (ii) or (iii).

- (3) Where neither of the parties to a marriage to which this Part applies was, at the time of the marriage, domiciled in Australia, the marriage shall not be recognised as valid in accordance with subsection (1) at any time while either party is under the age of 16 years.
- (4) A marriage solemnised in a foreign country, being a marriage to which this Part applies, shall not be recognised as valid in accordance with subsection (1) at any time while the marriage is voidable:
 - (a) except in a case to which paragraph (b) applies—under the local law; or
 - (b) if the marriage was solemnised in a foreign country by or in the presence of a diplomatic or consular officer of another foreign country—under the law of that other foreign country.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, where:
 - (a) a marriage (in this subsection referred to as the initial marriage) has, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, been solemnised in a foreign country;
 - (b) at the time of the solemnisation of the initial marriage, that marriage was not recognised in Australia as valid;
 - (c) after the solemnisation of the initial marriage, and whether before or after the commencement of this Part, either party to that marriage entered into another marriage (in this subsection referred to as the subsequent marriage); and

- (3) Where a marriage solemnised in a foreign country is not required by virtue of this Part to be recognised in Australia as valid, this Part shall not be taken to limit or exclude the operation of a provision of any other law of the Commonwealth, or of a law of a State or Territory, that provides, expressly or impliedly, for such a marriage to be recognised as a valid marriage for the purposes of the law in which the provision is included.
- (4) This Part shall not be taken to limit or exclude the operation of a provision of any other law of the Commonwealth, or of a law of a State or Territory, that deems a union in the nature of a marriage to be a marriage for the purposes of the law in which the provision is included.

88EA Certain unions are not marriages

A union solemnised in a foreign country between:

- (a) a man and another man; or
- (b) a woman and another woman;

must not be recognised as a marriage in Australia.

88F Incidental determination of recognition of certain foreign marriages

Notwithstanding any other law, the question whether a marriage solemnised in a foreign country is to be recognised in Australia as valid shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part, whether or not the determination of the question is incidental to the determination of another question.

 - (b) in the case of a marriage alleged to have been solemnised under the law of a foreign country—an authority of that country;
- is, for all purposes, prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the document and of the validity of the marriage to which the document relates.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to a document if it is proved that the authority of the foreign country or of the part of a foreign country by which the document purports to have been issued was not, at the time of issue, a competent authority.
- (3) In subsection (2), competent authority means:
- (a) in relation to a foreign country:
 - (i) any authority that is prescribed in relation to that country by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph; or

Part VI—Legitimation

89 Legitimation by virtue of marriage of parents

- (1) A child (whether born before or after the commencement of this Act) whose parents were not married to each other at the time of his or her birth but have subsequently married each other (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) is, by virtue of the marriage, for all purposes the legitimate child of his or her parents as from his or her birth or the commencement of this Act, whichever was the later.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a child whether or not there was a legal impediment to the marriage of his or her parents at the time of his or her birth and whether or not the child was still living at the time of the marriage or, in the case of a child born before the commencement of this Act, at the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a child unless:
 - (a) at the time of the marriage of the child's parents:
 - (i) where that marriage took place before the commencement of section 24 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1985—the child's father was domiciled in Australia; or
 - (ii) in any other case—one of the child's parents was domiciled in Australia; or
 - (b) the marriage of the child's parents took place in Australia, or outside Australia under Part V of this Act or under the Marriage (Overseas) Act 1955.
- (4) Nothing in this section renders ineffective any legitimation that took place before the commencement of this Act by or under a law of a State or Territory or shall be taken to exclude the continued operation of such a law in relation to such a legitimation.
- (5) This section does not apply in relation to a child so as to affect any estate, right or interest in real or personal property to which a person has become, or may become, entitled, either mediately or immediately, in possession or expectancy, by virtue of a disposition that took effect, or by devolution by law on the death of a person who died, before the marriage of the parents of the child or the commencement of this Act, whichever was the later.

- (c) neither parent of the child was domiciled in Australia at the time of the marriage; and
- (d) the law of the place where a parent of the child was then domiciled did not recognise the status of illegitimacy or, if the law of the place where a parent of the child was then domiciled did recognise that status, the child was, by that law, legitimated by virtue of the marriage;

the child is for all purposes the legitimate child of his or her parents as from the time of the marriage or the commencement of section 25 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1985, whichever was the later.

(2) Where the relationship of a child and his or her father and mother is, for the purposes of the law of a place, required by a law in force in that place to be determined irrespective of whether or not the father and mother are or have been married to each other, the law of that place shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken not to recognise the status of illegitimacy.

(3) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a child:

- (a) whether the child was born before or after the commencement of section 25 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1985, whether the marriage of the parents of the child took place before or after that commencement and whether or not the child was still living at the time of the marriage or, in the case of a child born before that commencement, at that commencement; and
- (b) in the case of a child born illegitimate who, by virtue of the marriage of the child's parents, was legitimated by the law of the place where a parent of the child was domiciled at the time of the marriage—whether or not the law of the place in which that parent or the other parent was domiciled at the time of the birth of the child permitted or recognised legitimation by subsequent marriage.

91 Legitimacy of children of certain void marriages

- (1) Subject to this section, a child of a marriage that is void shall be deemed for all purposes to be the legitimate child of his or her parents as from his or her birth or the commencement of this Act, whichever was the later, if, at the time of the intercourse that resulted in the birth of the child or the time when the ceremony of marriage took place, whichever was the later, either party to the marriage believed on reasonable grounds that the marriage was valid.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply unless one of the parents of the child was domiciled in Australia at the time of the birth of the child or, having died before that time, was domiciled in Australia immediately before his or her death.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a child whether the child was born before or after the commencement of this Act, whether the ceremony of marriage took place before or after the commencement of this Act and whether the ceremony of marriage took place in or outside Australia.
- (4) This section does not apply in relation to a child so as to affect any estate, right or interest in real or personal property to which a person has become, or may become, entitled, either mediately or immediately, in possession or expectancy, by virtue of a disposition that took effect, or by devolution by law on the death of a person who died, before the birth of the child or the commencement of this Act, whichever was the later.

- (6) An order made under this section binds the Crown in right of the Commonwealth or of a State or the Northern Territory or Norfolk Island, whether or not notice was given to the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth or of that State or Territory, but does not affect:
 - (a) the rights of another person unless that other person was:
 - (i) a party to the proceedings for the order or a person claiming through such a party; or

- (2) Nothing in this Part shall be taken to exclude the operation of a law of a State or Territory in so far as it provides for the making or altering of entries in a register, but a legitimation under this Part is not affected by any failure to comply with such a law.
- (3) Nothing in this Part shall be taken to affect the validity or effect of a law of a State or Territory (however expressed and whether enacted before or after the commencement of this subsection) that operates to require a child born to a woman as a result of the carrying out of a artificial conception procedure in relation to the woman:
